

Better of Three Evils

VERSE 1:

Superman is dead, whoa, the note read an answer to my mail-in ballot
I guess I'm writing myself in,
I guess I'm writing myself in,
I guess I'm writing myself in....
...whoa, for president

Check a box and seal our fate, check a box, it's too late
We're living in a StagNation
And in my American way
I need someone to blame
Blame you, blame me,
blame you, but the change it starts in me

CHORUS:

Lean to the left, lean to the right
Here we have our great divide
Lean to the left, lean to the right
Our defenses open wide
Stand up straight!
Stand up straight!
Stand up straight!
If you want to redefine...

VERSE 2:

Conformity is key, whoa, the nation screams
Synchronized complacency
I guess you're trading your rights in,
I guess you're trading your rights in,
I guess you're trading your rights in...
...whoa, for ignorance

Check a box and choose your place
Check a box, your choices made
We're living in a StagNation
But in my day and age
I will hear the people scream
Forget the left, forget the right,
Forget the rest, this is our fight

CHORUS:

Lean to the left, lean to the right
Here we have our great divide
Lean to the left, lean to the right
Our defenses open wide
Stand up straight!
Stand up straight!
Stand up straight!
If you want to redefine...
